HARPER

<http://www.harper.biz/>

Award-winning Australian singer/songwriter Peter D. Harper – known in the music world simply as "Harper" -- creates a heady mix of roots music through his creative use of the harmonica and the haunting drone of the didgeridoo. Harper possesses a strong, resonant voice and a deep, almost mystical approach to music that some might say has evolved into its own genre. Harper calls it "World Blues" -- a rich musical stew of '50s rhythm and blues, a '60s message of love and unity, and '70s funky soul.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GRzBD1D9TZw>

Here from Nashville TN.:

"Traditional country with a twist." Kari is one of those rare artists who has the ability to step on stage and immediately connect with the audience, making new listeners feel like they're old friends. Her lively stage presence, powerful voice, sincere character and honest, gutsy approach to songwriting leaves an impression on all of those who get the chance to hear her. With a continuous and rapidly growing fan base, a loaded tour schedule for 2017 that takes her all over the U.S., a new single and music video set for release this Spring and her latest album, "Little Games" which "proves her mettle as a first-rate songwriter and collaborator who's striking voice simply elevates her music," Kari Lynch is a true artist and songwriter to watch.

<http://www.zionlionreggaeband.com/>

Zion Lion is the "daddest" Band to hit the Kalamazoo music scene. The members are a combination of several bands from the Kalamazoo area that crossed each others paths along the way and decided to form just the right mix of reggae, African zouk, mucosa, zoukous and some Afro- latin influences. Some of the members have had the honor of opening and sharing the stage with local, national and international reggae artists such as Freddie McGregor, Pato Batun, Winston Jarrett, Culture, Beenie Man, Lucky Dube, Mikey Dread and the Meditations.

You can't help but get up and dance and have an "rie Feelin" whenever you hear Zion Lion!

<http://www.thebronkbros.com/>

A blue-collar work ethic, big dreams, and a grassroots attitude has gained the Michigan-based brother duo, The Bronk Bros., respect in the Midwest music scene. With over a decade of live performances, the act has shared the stage with more than 80 National touring country artists including Dierks Bentley, Charlie Daniels Band, Jason Aldean, Darius Rucker, and many more. In 2008, the brother duo who describes their live show as a "Rockin' Hillbilly Extravaganza," earned a slot opening for Kenny Chesney in the national "Next Big Star Contest." With the 2009 release of their first full album, "Here For The Good Times," the acts hard work was rewarded by landing their original party song "Here For The Good Times" on the Music Row Country Charts, the same album produced the act Midwest regional airplay with their tracks "In The Eye Of The Beerholder," "Famous In This House," and "Tanlines."
